

It's Not Over:

Innovative Approaches to the Global AIDS Epidemic

A Town Meeting with Congresswoman Betty McCollum

Monday, April 28, 2008
12:00 -1:30PM

Mayo Memorial Auditorium
UMN School of Medicine (East Bank)

Lunch will be served. Parking validation available (with UMN ticket).
This event is FREE and open to the public.

Keynote address by:

The Honorable Betty McCollum,

U.S. Representative for the 4th district of Minnesota; Co-founder and Co-chair, Congressional Global Health Caucus

and featuring:

Donna Barry, Advocacy Director, Partners in Health

Keith Henry, MD, Director of Clinical HIV Research,
Hennepin County Medical Center; Professor of Medicine, UMN

Omobosola Akinsete, MD, MPH, Assistant
Professor of Infectious Disease, UMN

Moderated by: Pat Daoust, MSN, RN, Director of the Health Action
AIDS Campaign at Physicians for Human Rights, & Lorraine Teel,
Executive Director of the Minnesota AIDS Project

Health
Action AIDS

PHR

Physicians for Human Rights

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

The University of Minnesota is an equal opportunity educator and employer.

This event is organized by Physicians for Human Rights and the Minnesota AIDS Project, and co-sponsored by The Center for Infectious Diseases and Microbiology Translational Research; The Center for Victims of Torture; The Deborah E. Powell Center for Women's Health; The Department of Microbiology; The Division of Infectious Diseases and International Medicine; The Global Health Pathway;
The Global Pediatric Programs; The Human Rights Center at the University Minnesota Law School; The International Medical Education and Research Program; The Minnesota African Women's Association;
The Minnesota International Health Volunteers; The School of Public Health and The School of Nursing.

RSVP appreciated: call (612) 373-AIDS or email Carolyn at bram0058@umn.edu
For more info: www.physiciansforhumanrights.org/townhall